DECLARATION OF JOEL MARTIN FRANK IN SUPPORT OF OCH-ZIFF CAPITAL MANAGEMENT GROUP LLC'S OPPOSITION
TO DEBTOR'S SUBPOENA DUCES TECUM DATED APRIL 12, 2010

Joel Martin Frank declares:

1. I am the Chief Financial Officer of Och-Ziff Capital Management Group LLC ("Och-Ziff") and submit this declaration in support of Och-Ziff's Opposition to Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc., et al.'s ("Lehman" or "Debtor") Subpoena Duces Tecum dated April 12, 2010 (the "Subpoena").

2. Debtor is demanding that Och-Ziff produce "All documents [relating to, referring to, or describing] Lehman" during the twelve month period from January 1, 2008 through January 1, 2009. (See Subpoena Request No. 1, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit A.)

Complying with the Subpoena will cost Och-Ziff at least $3.3 million dollars as explained below.

Och-Ziff and its Relationship with Lehman

3. Och-Ziff is a publicly traded asset management firm. Och-Ziff had, and still has, significant ties with Lehman and its various affiliates:

- Lehman was one of Och-Ziff's significant prime brokers and at the time of bankruptcy, Och-Ziff had approximately $215 million in assets held in custody by Lehman's U.K. affiliate, Lehman Brothers International Europe;
- Lehman was one of Och-Ziff's substantial counterparties in both listed and over-the-counter securities and derivatives transactions;
- Lehman served as co-lead underwriter of Och-Ziff's initial public offering, which took place in 2007;
- Funds advised by Lehman's asset management business were invested in funds managed by Och-Ziff;
- Lehman provided research coverage for Och-Ziff's trading desks; and
- Lehman was, and still is, a lender to Och-Ziff's Management Company, with approximately $250 million in loans outstanding as of the date of bankruptcy. Och-Ziff continues to make monthly payments to Lehman as required by the terms of the loan.

4. Och-Ziff's interest was thus in Lehman's continued financial health; and Och-Ziff had nothing to gain from Lehman's demise. To the contrary, Lehman's bankruptcy, which was not brought about by any wrongful act by Och-Ziff, has caused Och-Ziff significant losses.

Communications Between Lehman and Och-Ziff that Would be Covered by the Subpoena

5. In light of the extensive relationship between Och-Ziff and Lehman, Och-Ziff naturally has a tremendous number of documents that are covered by Debtor's Subpoena.

- As one of Och-Ziff's significant prime brokers, Och-Ziff and Lehman communicated hundreds of times a day regarding trading activity, margin accounting for collateral on derivatives transactions and other trades, lending of securities, and trade settlements;
- As an executing counterparty, Lehman would communicate with Och-Ziff regularly about purchases and sales transactions;
- In connection with Lehman's loan to Och-Ziff, the parties would communicate regularly concerning loan compliance matters;
- In connection with its investment in funds managed by Och-Ziff, the parties would communicate regularly about liquidity terms, operational due diligence, and net capital flows; and
- In connection with research coverage, each day Lehman sent Och-Ziff independent research, market information and data, and solicited purchase and sale orders from Och-Ziff's trading desks located in its three main offices in the United States, United Kingdom and Hong Kong.

The Cost of Responding to the Subpoena

6. In order to understand the scope of documents responsive to the Subpoena, our counsel had a vendor segregate emails created during the first nineteen days of September 2008 that contain in the body of the email or in an attachment the word "Lehman" or the symbol "LEH." The result was 134,228 emails and 76,296 attachments. Multiplying that number by 19 (19 x 19 = 361 days) leads to 2,550,332 responsive emails and 1,449,624 responsive attachments.

7. I am also informed that on average an attorney can review 75 documents an hour. It would thus take about 53,000 hours to review the 3.9 million responsive documents. I also understand that contract attorneys cost on average $55 an hour. This would result in a cost of $2,915,000 for contract attorneys alone.

8. I am further informed that a privilege log would add significant additional expense, but that it would be impossible to estimate the cost at this time.

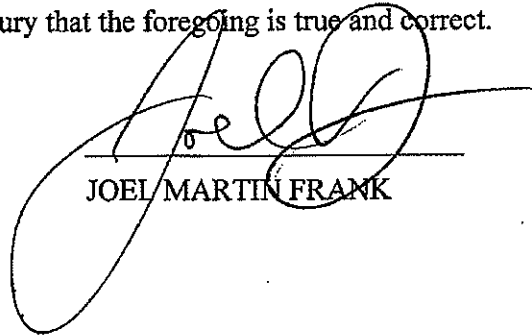

9. I understand that there are also technology costs of at least $395,000 involved in processing, hosting and producing the emails and attachments. This is based on the following: I am told that it has been reasonably estimated that approximately 265 gigabytes of data would be involved, and that processing the data will cost around $500/gigabyte, or $132,500. Due to the volume, a service provider will have to host this data on their servers. I am told that the cost is approximately $45/gigabyte per month plus $25/gigabyte loading fees. The cost for storage alone would be $11,925 per month, which for six months adds up to $71,550. Data loading charges will total approximately $6,625. And converting the documents into a format to be produced to Debtor will cost $700/gigabyte, or about $185,000. None of these charges include project management time which cannot be estimated at this time.

10. Our estimate for the cost to comply of producing emails alone is $3,310,000. I fear that producing other documents, project management and the cost of producing a privileged log will add hundreds of thousands of dollars more to Och-Ziff's costs.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Rule 45, Fed.R.Civ.P., Parts (c) & (d) made applicable in cases under the Bankruptcy Code by Rule 9016, Fed.R.Bankr.P.

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take responsible steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;
(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or
(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.
